It is I, be not afraid I am your God, and I know your name, let the winds blow strong and the waves roll high be not afraid, be not afraid, for it is I.

Verse 2:

Toiling and fighting, so empty inside life's getting hopeless, so tired of the fight doubt now assails you, does God really care? Just open your heart, you'll hear His voice saying, "I am here."

Repeat Chorus:

Chorus 3:

It is I (The Great I Am), be not afraid (He calms the wind) I am your God ((am your God), and I know your name let the winds blow strong and the waves roll high be not afraid, be not afraid, for it is I.
