

Favored One

Her husband had died and she had a choice to make
Return to her home of all she'd known
Take a leap of faith
By Naomi's side she'd said she'd abide
She promised 'til death did part
So to Bethlehem they journeyed where she worked with a willing heart

She gleaned in the fields
Picking up what was left behind
Day after day she worked this way with her mother-in-law in mind
But then to her surprise in a stranger's eyes she became his favored one
When she humbled herself at his feet he made her his own

Chorus:

He bought her, redeemed her, gave her more than she could ask
He gave her a home and made her his own
Showed her love that would last
Her steps of faith led the way into His loving arms
Her new life began when she became his favored one

Just like Ruth, I had a choice to make
Give my home of all I'd known
Or accept the Lord by faith
He said by my side He's always abide
And I'd be His favored one
So I humbled myself at the Savior's feet
He made me His own

Chorus 2:

He bought me, redeemed me, gave me more than I could ask
He gave me a home and made me His own
Showed me love that would last
My steps of faith led the way into His loving arms
My new life began when I became His favored one
