

He Will Hide Me

Written by: Kyla Rowland

Verse 1:

I am Job lying helpless suffering lost but not hopeless
I am David crying mercy Lord on me
I am Elijah in a cave dreading the light of day
I am Daniel humbly bowed faithfully
I am Paul in a prison lifting praise to Heaven
I am John cast out but not down
I am Moses seeking shelter in the cleft of the rock
Here I am Lord hide me again

Chorus:

I finally made it to the cleft of the rock
I'm glad for I could no longer stand
Many times I will struggle to reach that old rock
But He will hide me again and again

Verse 2:

Now I'm safe from the stranger
Safe from the danger that would try to do me great harm
I am wrapped up and warm in the love of my Master
I am resting while I lean on His arm
So I'll stay a little longer until I am stronger
When all of my healing is done
The ravens will feed me and His hand will keep me
And hide me 'til I can go on

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock
That shadows a dry thirsty land
He hideth my life with the depths of His love
And He will hide me again and again
And again
