

Jesus Can

Ricky Atkinson/

If I could I would take away the troubles weighing heavy on your mind and in your life

If I could I would wipe away the sorrows that you feel deep down inside and make them mine;

But there's only just so much a friend indeed can help you through along the way,
But I'm glad to say I know the one who will be there to help you when you pray

Chorus:

If I could I would take you by the hand and lead you through this valley wide to sand upon the mountain high

If I could I would walk across the burning desert sand restore your soul with sweeter water from a better land

But I'm sure that in my strongest hour, I still could not possess the power to bring you through the raging fire you must withstand

But remember...Jesus can

If I could I would dry away the tears that stain your pillow in the night; make it right,

If I could I would lift you up above the clouds of doubt and fearful fright with all my might

But the truth remains the same though I try y best I'm still a man like you

But I'm glad to say I know the One who will be there to help you make it through

Repeat Chorus

Tag:

But I'm sure that in my strongest hour, I still could not possess the power to bring you through the raging fire you must withstand (stand)

But remember...remember Jesus can. Jesus can. OOOOOOOOOO