

So Much More

Dr. Brenda Robinson/BMI/New Desire Publishing/2011

Verse 1:

It wasn't wasted time
When on the cross for you I died
It wasn't all for nothing
It had reason, it had rhyme
For all the precious blood I shed
Grace is now yours to hold
You can enter my throne room
So humbly and so bold

Chorus:

There is no pain too deep for me to heal
No sin too great I can't forgive
No grief too strong to be released
My love is enough, and it's all you'll ever need
I am your power and your strength
I'm much greater than the world
And I love you so much more.

Verse 2:

Life has much to offer
Like pleasures, fame and fun
Success can be achieved
If that race you choose to run
But let me remind you
There is no love like mine
It's healing and it's cleansing
It's so gentle and so kind

Chorus

There is no pain too deep for me to heal
No sin too great I can't forgive
No grief too strong to be released
My love is enough, and it's all you'll ever need
I am your power and your strength
I'm much greater than the world
And I love you so much more.

Bridge:

Grace is now yours to hold (ooooo)
So enter my throne room bold (ahhhhh)
It's healing and its cleansing (ooooo)
There is no love like mine

Chorus

There is no pain too deep for me to heal

No sin too great I can't forgive

No grief too strong to be released

My love is enough, and it's all you'll ever need

I am your power and your strength

I'm much greater than the world

And I love you so much more.
