

The Celebration

Brenda J. Robinson/New Desire Publishing/ BMI

Verse 1:

The women came to the tomb that day
They saw that He was gone
They asked the gardener where He was
Jesus spoke these words
I am the risen Savior
Go tell them I said come
Meet me in the upper room
The celebration had begun

Chorus:

The celebration started on resurrection morn
Jesus came back from the dead
The mighty veil was torn
Jesus died to give new life
We have access to the throne
Let's praise, let's shout, let's dance about
Let the celebration go on

Verse 2:

The Savior sat down by the well
The woman thirsty she came
He told her about her sorrows
And sin that brought her shame
I'll give you living water
She gladly took a drink
She ran and told the people
This man they had to come and meet

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

Come join the celebration
Receive the risen Lord
His power is upon you
He died to give you joy

Last Chorus:

The celebration started on resurrection morn
Jesus came back from the dead
The mighty veil was torn
Jesus died to give new life
We have access to the throne
Let's praise, let's shout, let's dance about
There's no need to wait for the pearly gates
Let the celebration go on
Let the celebration go on
