

There Is A Reason

Jeff Ferguson

There is a reason why the birds lift their voices and sing
There is a reason why the trees lift their branches in honor to Him
There is a reason why the God of Creation deserves all the glory and praise
There is a reason and the reason is

Chorus:

He's worthy of the glory and honor
He's worthy so lift up His name
He's worthy let creation adore Him
Let every heart proclaim
That He's worthy of our praise

There is a reason why the church lifts its voice up and sings
There is a reason why we all lift our hands up in honor to Him
There is a reason why the God of Creation
Deserves all the glory and praise
There is a reason and the reason is

Chorus

Bridge

Let the Earth rejoice
Together lift one voice and sing

Repeat Chorus
